Eyes are windows into a person's inner being. They communicate compassion, anger, questions, and sadness. Eyes can narrow in anger or open wide in surprise and joy. A glance can cut down or encourage others. Eyes also allow us to receive information and insight about life. Humble eyes look at life from God's point of view, not from a human perspective. They see what He sees. What will your eyes reveal about you today?

You save the humble but bring low those whose eyes are haughty.
--Psalm 18:27
